Nine Persons Out of Every Ten Suffer from Defective Teeth ARE YOU ONE OF THE NINE?

And defective teeth are the cause of nine out of every ten cases of nervousness, sleeplessness, indigestion, and numerous common ailments.

For the pain, worry, and ailments caused by decayed teeth undermine your vitality and make you more easily subject to contagious diseases and ordinary ills.

Have Your Teeth Treated.

WITHOUT PAIN

By the

Only Method of Painless

Dentistry

Approved by the United States Government.

We have installed the original Teter Apparatus displayed at the recent Congress of Hygiene and Demography, held in Washington last September.

By the use of the Teter Apparatus the anesthetic administered makes it impossible to feel pain, but does not produce insensibility. There is positively no bad after effects.

YOUR TEETH EXAMINED FREE

Special attention is given to nervous patients and children. Our office is in the center of the shopping district and is accessible to all car lines. And you pay the slight cost in SMALL WEEKLY PAYMENTS.

You will save time, money, and pain by letting us examine your teeth at once—free of charge.

We have opened this office for the benefit of the public—to educate them to care for their teeth at a minimum cost. We are not after large financial returns, and any money made by this office in excess of the necessary expenses required to maintain it will be utilized to better our facilities and enlarge our equipment to enable us to better care for the needs of the public. This office is operated and owned by a local dentist with an established practice, who has opened this branch only to encourage and educate the public to better care for their teeth, and not as a money-making proposition.

EAGLES' OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

David Wolf and Others Elected and Formally Inducted into Office.

The yearly installation of officers of Washington Aerie, No. 124, Fraternal Order of Eagles, took place last night at their home, corner of Sixth and E Streets. The following officers were inducted into office: David Wolf, worthy president; William E. Cowen, worthy vice president; William E. Evans, worthy chaplain; J. Donald Britt, worthy secretary; Rossa Downing, worthy treasurer; H. Hirschowitz, inside sentinel; William Hirschowitz, outside sentinel; Ward Savage, worthy trustee.

After the installation a banquet was served, attended by several hundred members.

Worthy President David Wolf outlined his policies that he intends to introduce in the aerie during the coming year, which was received with great applause. The other officers mentioned above were also called upon, and expressed their sentiments. James Finner, past worthy president, was the toastmaster. The junior worthy president gave an instructive talk, promising to assist the new administration in every possible manner.
